

THE ARCHITECTURE OF SPIRITUAL FREEDOM

Advanced Lessons in Liberty from “Pigs in the Parlor”

THE PREMISE:

Deliverance is the restoration of the believer's structural integrity. We view the life as a “Parlor” that must be inspected, cleansed, renewed, and defended.

THE SCOPE:

Beyond the basics. We explore the deep structural issues: Inheritance, Rejection, Schizophrenia, and The Final Conflict.

Trespassers, Not Owners

The Distinction:

The Greek word daimonizomai translates to 'demonized' or 'having demons,' not 'possessed.' Possession implies ownership.

Legal Standing:

A Christian cannot be owned by demons. You are bought with a price (I Corinthians 6:19-20). The body is the temple of the Holy Spirit.

The Violation:

Demons are illegal trespassers. Like pigs wandering into a clean parlor, they have no title deed. They are squatters that must be driven out, not negotiated with.

The Ruse of Inheritance

The Lie:

The enemy whispers, "You are just like your parents," or "This weakness runs in the family." He exploits biological traits to enforce spiritual bondage.

The Reality:

Spiritual bondage is not a mandate. We do not accept the inheritance of darkness.

The Counter:

"He shall choose our inheritance for us" (Psalm 17:4). We claim the new heritage of Christ.

The Nursery: The Open Door of Rejection

*The Entry Point: Rejection is often the 'strong man' or ruling spirit. It enters through 'open doors' in childhood or even prenatal wounds (unwanted conception).

The Rejection Triad:

1. Rejection: The inability to receive love.
2. Fear of Rejection: The inability to give love.
3. Self-Rejection: The hatred of one's own identity.

The Result: Rejection starves the individual of love, creating a vacuum for other spirits to enter.

Structural Fracture: The Spirit of Double-Mindedness

Ta discovered fracture fracture: 'A double minded man and torsturn interven-tir not, just a medical diagnosis but a spiritual stat, in nas sam six inerven dīmin xoi amin.

Ta anucum antaxiic cornuscriptes. Ena-sem al inpensorstit, defentings, defirant intin stat ex oproud. Entæa noubs back entrraasaorant er mundetadrif.

Biblical Definition: "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways" (James 1:8).

The Spiritual Dynamic: Schizophrenia is not just a medical diagnosis but a spiritual state. It is a 'nest' of spirits creating two opposing personalities within the believer. The person is torn between two poles, preventing the 'Real Self' from emerging.

✠ The Anatomy of the Knot (Schizophrenia Part II) ✠

✠ *The Revelation: The schizophrenic structure is like two interlaced hands.

- Left Hand (Rejection): The withdrawn personality—insecurity, fantasy, self-pity.
- Right Hand (Rebellion): The aggressive personality—control, bitterness, stubbornness.

✠ The Solution: Deliverance requires the 'unlacing' of these demonic knots. The 'Real Self' must fall out of agreement with both sides.

Cleansing the Sanctuary

*Cursed Objects: “Neither shall you bring an abomination into your house” (Deut 7:26). Physical objects can attract and harbor demons.

*Specific Dangers: Idols, occult literature, and unclean animal representations
Destroying the contact point breaks the legal right of the spirit to remain.

The Keys of Authority: Binding and Loosing

BINDING

LOOSING

*Definition: Deo (to bind/fasten) and Luo (to loose/dissolve).

*Legal Reality: “Whatever you bind on earth is [already] bound in heaven.”
We are enforcing a verdict Heaven has already passed.

Application:

* Bind: The strong man and the power of the enemy.

* Loose: The captive from bondage and infirmity.

Strategy for the Unwilling: Intercessory Warfare

*The Problem: How to minister to those whose wills are bound or who refuse help.

*The Tactic: Spiritual warfare releases the will of another. We do not control them; we bind the blinding forces of darkness so they are free to choose.

*The Weapon: Love is a weapon that “heaps coals of fire” on the enemy. It persists when logic and persuasion fail.

The Safety of the Phalanx: Team Ministry

*Biblical Model: Jesus sent them out “two by two.”

*The Necessity of the Team: 1. Protection: Disunity is a breach in the wall.

A unified team provides a spiritual covering.

2. Power: Agreement in prayer amplifies authority (Matt 18:19).

3. Support: Physical restraint or moral support during violent manifestations.

Displacement: Filling the House

*The Danger: An empty house, swept and garnished, invites the return of the enemy with seven worse spirits (Matt 12:43-45).

*The Solution: We do not just cast out; we must fill up. Purity and Power:

 Fruit of the Spirit: Replaces the nature of the demon (Love replaces Hate).

 Gifts of the Spirit: Empower the believer for service and defense.

The Vision of the Final Conflict

*The Setting: The 'World Series' of history. The final conflict between righteousness and evil.

*The Enemy's Camouflage: The enemy wears black and white, symbolizing his primary tactic of mixture and deception.

*Our Uniform: We fight in the Red (The Blood of Jesus) and the White (Personal Holiness).

Taking the Offensive

*The State of the Game: The enemy has run up the score only because the Church has been on defense for too long.

*The Call: “We haven’t come to bat yet.” It is time to switch from a defensive mindset to an offensive Kingdom mindset.

*The Tactic: We do not wait to be attacked; we actively tear down strongholds.

Balance and Wisdom

*The Trap of Extremes: Avoid the ditch of 'Demon Paranoia' (seeing a demon in every doorknob) and the ditch of 'Skepticism' (ignoring the enemy). *The Focus: Do not converse with demons for knowledge. Rely on the Holy Spirit. The Goal: The objective is not just to fight devils, but to clear the debris so the 'Real Self' can emerge in Christ.

The Victorious Church

*The Promise: 'The gates of Hell shall not prevail against it' (Matt 16:18). Gates are defensive structures; the Church is the battering ram.

*The Mandate: Freedom is not for survival; it is for service.

*The Outcome: The Pigs are gone. The Parlor is cleansed.

The House is now a Throne Room for the King.
